CTDS Truck driving school is not responsible for any accidents or injuries during your training in the yard. We are not responsible for any lost, stolen, and or damage to your property. Proper clothes and or shoe's attire is required.

If a student withdraws or is dismissed after instruction has begun, the institution shall retain only a prorated portion of tuition based on the number of hours completed. Refunds are calculated as follow:

- Total Tuition Paid
- Minus non-refundable registration fee of $500
- Minus the cost of training received (based on hours completed)

Percent hours completed = Hours in program ÷ 160 = %

Training Value used = Total tuition paid – nonrefundable registration fee x percent of hours completed

Refund Issued = Total tuition - nonrefundable registration fee – training value used

No refund is due once the student has started the first day of school clock hours of institution in any given period of attendance.
