The job you are applying for entails long hours, working on July 4th, and most likely working on Sundays (there are some exceptions). You may also be asked to work very late evenings. Please list any times you will not be available to work due to ball games, church, summer school, family outings, part-time jobs:

_____

The pay scale for this job is as follows:

- Base Wage/Training Wage: $4.75 /hr
- Returning Employees who have completed their training contract in the past: $8/hr
- If you are applying to be a checker or cashier, extra training time is required—for which you will not be paid (due to the difference in time it takes people to learn the prices).
- All pay will be paid out at the end of the Fireworks Season and after inventory and clean-up is completed (Approximately July 20th).

This is not a contract of work. The Castle of Muskogee and Children's House reserve the right to fire any employee at any time without reason and employees have the right to quit at any time without reason. (The Castle of Muskogee and Children's House are equal opportunity employers.)
