FROM BOB'S LOOKOUT TO THE LOOKOUT BAR & GRILL

What began as a small bar on the Kinnan family farmland has grown into a Maple Grove tradition spanning generations. In 1957, after returning from the Korean War as an Air Force pilot, Bob Kinnan worked with his family to transform a farm equipment building into Bob's Lookout. With 30¢ beers, a small seating area, and a vision for something special, the foundation was set for what would become a local landmark.

By 1959, live country music filled the Lookout seven nights a week, drawing guests from throughout the Twin Cities to dance under the stars. In 1960, Bob married Vivian, and with the help of his mother, Myrtle "Ma" Kinnan, the family added a kitchen and brought good food to the experience.

As Maple Grove grew from quiet farmland and gravel roads into the thriving community we know today, so did the Lookout. Bob and Vivian had two sons, Michael and Thomas. In 1987, they passed the business to their son Michael, who continued the family tradition and expanded the restaurant by adding a large outdoor patio, banquet rooms, full catering services, and many other improvements over the years.

Though the Lookout has changed and grown over the decades, our commitment to family, our neighborhood, and our community has never changed. We're proud of our roots and grateful to everyone who has been part of our journey.

The Lookout Bar & Grill — still the best-kept secret in Maple Grove.
